

Year 3 – History- Autumn

The Potteries

Rich and Poor

Thinking like a Historian

Similarities and differences	Historical Significance	Continuity and Change	Cause	Sources and Evidence	Consequence

Chronology

What I already know

Essential Knowledge

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - about the significance of James Brindley and his impact on the canal system across England and in Stoke-on-Trent. - that people in Stoke-on-Trent were affected by WWI and many men from Staffordshire fought and died in the war. About and have explored historical artefacts, including toys used in the past.	The pottery industry was an important industry for the local area. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Bottle kilns, which are the shape of bottles, were used to 'fire' the pottery. - 1759– Wedgwood was Established Josiah Wedgwood was a very powerful and famous potter and Wedgwood pottery is still very famous today. - 1770—First canals are built. Canals were used to transport the pottery safely around the country as the roads were not suitable for transporting delicate pottery. - The workers in the factories were often very poor but the factory owners were very wealthy. - 1956– Clean air act was introduced
---	--

Vocabulary

Pottery	Pots, dishes and other items made from 'fired' clay	Poor	Someone with very little money or resources
Factory	A building where goods are made	Potter	Someone who makes the pots and dishes.
Wealthy	Someone with a lot of money or resources	Kiln	A furnace or oven

Champion Opportunity

Visit Middleport Pottery Museum