

Year 5 - History - Spring Term

Concept :
Significance

The Tudors and the Significance of Henry VIII

What I already know:
Romans invaded Britain in 43AD.
Romans left Britain in 420 AD.
Vikings attacked Lindisfarne in 793AD

Knowledge
1066 Battle of Hastings and William the Conqueror is crown King. Norman period begins.
1485 Richard III is defeated at the Battle of Bosworth and the Tudor periods begins.
1486 Henry VII marries Elizabeth of York ending the Battle of the Roses.
1509 Henry VII dies and Henry VIII becomes King
1521 The pope grants Henry VIII the title 'Defender of the Faith'
Henry VIII search for a wife.
1535-1540 Destruction or closure of 560 monasteries and religious houses
1547—Henry VIII dies

Skills
Compare accounts of events from different sources, including those which are factual and those which are fiction.
Understanding and explain the reliability of sources and recognise sources which are not reliable.
Use evidence to build up a picture of life in time studied. Explain why people acted the way they did .
Being a Historian Interpretation

Key Vocabulary
monarchy	the monarch and royal family of a country.
heir	a person who receives or has the right to receive another person's property or title after that person's death
reign	to hold the power of a monarch; rule
succeed	to follow or come after
executed	to put to death by law
Crowned	A ceremony where a person is named king or queen.
Battle	A sustained fight between two large armies.
divorce	the ending of a marriage as recognized by law
annul	to remove the legal validity of

